ED GLASS KICKS.

Says He Does Not Belong With The Combine.

Is Making His Own Race And will Keep Aloof From Entangling Alliances.

The municipal contest is rapidly narrowing down to a straight contest on party lines, in the six wards where the Democrats have a ticket. On the alleged citizens ticket there is not a man who voted the Democratic ticket two years ago. In the First and Seventh wards the candidates are straight-out Republicans and at least two of the other four are believed to have voted for McKinley. It is absolutely certain that three of the alleged Democrats voted against Bryan and are against Goebel this year. The six so-called independents have selected a pair of scales as their device. This is very appropriate, for the scales have fallen from the eyes of the few deluded Democrats who were thinking of voting for some of them. The people now see through the beautifully concocted scheme. Several recent caucuses have been discovered, in which were some of the leading Republicans of the city. It would be a revelation to some people who are not on to the curves of some of these candidates who have grown old in ward politics, to watch the breaking up of one these "citizens" meetings. The Democrats taking part in these mournful gatherings are conspicuous by their absence.

By-the-way Councilmen Ed Glass, who is running as the Republican nominee in the Fifth ward, without any opposition, says he wants it understood that he is not lined up with the scales crowd. He is making his own race and is in cahoot with no party. He authorizes the statement that his vote cannot be counted on to distribute the pie that is being promised so freely to the credulous. In other words he is kicking like a steer because the KENTUCKIAN classed him with the allied opponents of the Democratic party. Now that Councilmen Glass has repudiated the combine, they are bound to elect at last four of their men to be it at all. This they have no earthly chance to do.
